MORNING MEETING ACTION ITEM

TO: DD/S

DDCI questioned whether our awards ceremonies do not lose a good deal of their effect by virtue of the fact that disparate awards are handed out before conglomerate audiences, thereby mitigating the possibility of publicly commenting in a meaningful way on various awards, particularly those arising from a sensitive operation. DD/S agreed to look into the matter.

TO: Executive Director-Comptroller

On 30 September 1968 I met with the Acting Director of Personnel

[redacted] An arrangement will be worked out whereby awards ceremonies will be matched to the nature of the award, permitting the DDCI to speak freely on the action which prompted the granting of an award. In some cases the timing will require a single recipient at a ceremony. We will have to see by experience whether this becomes a burden upon the DDCI.
